UNT LIS Study Abroad

2 courses and a trip to Germany and Czech Republic!

On-site, in Czech Republic and Germany: May 11 – June 1, 2014

Summer 8w semester: May 12 – July 3, 2014

We are looking for 10 to 15 students to help us to establish a new international school library in Karlovy Vary (Karlsbad), Czech Republic and optimize an existing international school library in Stuttgart, Germany!

This wonderful opportunity invites LIS students to experience planning, managing, and implementing an entirely new school library, and assessing a sustainable automation system in a fully contained setting. Applicants from all library disciplines are welcome.

Deadline to email your expression of interest is Friday, November 29th.

PROFESSOR:

Dr. Barb Schultz-Jones, Director, School Library Program Barbara.Schultz-Jones@unt.edu
Debby Jennings, Adjunct Professor and Library Director, Fort Worth Country Day School.

COST:

Course fee (includes UNT tuition for 6 credit hours, accommodation and local transport), airfare, passport, and optional tours.

 Study Abroad Scholarships: TBA

COURSES:

• SLIS 5750  Managing Library Automation Projects
• SLIS 5680  Seminar in Information Resources and Services for Special Clientele
PREREQUISITES:

Consent of school (we’re looking for willing participants with a range of experience from new admits to the program to fully experienced; technical expertise and catalogers always welcome!)
